Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The National Farm School, Doylestown, Pa: Annual Report, January 1st, 1902 1. An applicant for admission must be between 15 and 21 years of age. (His mental and physical development must be such as ensure his being able to pursue the advanced studies and to perform the industrial work.) 2. He must pass a thorough entrance examination completing the common branches equivalent to the entrance examination into the High School. 3. An applicant must be in good health. A physician s certificate, according to the form prescribed by the Directors, must accompany the application. Where practicable, a physician will be designated near the residence of the applicant, from whom such certificate must be obtained. 4. An applicant must be of good moral character and able and willing to perform hard out-door work. Satisfactory references must accompany the application, and wherever practicable, the recommendations must be submitted by the applicant to be endorsed by the member of the Auxiliary Board representing the State in which such applicant resides. 5. Preference will be given to the applications of graduates of Orphan Asylums, or other like charitable institutions. The number of admissions will be dependent upon the annual income of the School. Applications will be considered in the order in which they are received. 6. A limited number of pay students will be accepted at a charge of $200 per annum, payable semi-annually in advance. In lieu of this fee, the Directors will accept the written pledge of a sufficient number of reliable persons agreeing to contribute annually, for four years, membership dues to the amount of $200. (The dues are as follows: - Friends, $25.00 per annum;...
