Young people all, in blooming days. Hear what your Lord and Saviour says: Now is the time to seek my face, The time to share my sovereign grace. I now with gospel banner stand, With peace and pardon in my hand; Saying to sinners in their prime, Come, now is the accepted time. Poor broken hearts, why do you mourn, Like some forsaken dove forlorn? I am your Saviour, come rejoice, And raise to heaven your cheerful voice. Come, you that mourn, lament and weep, And long to be among my sheep, Tis my delight to set you free From sin and death and misery. Forsake the world with all its fame, Take up my cross - despise the shame; And now pursue the living way, That leads to everlasting day. Address to Old and Young. C. M. double. I Dear people, all attention give To what a friend shall say: I wish your souls with Christ to live, In everlasting day. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of...
