Fair too Jjhe little village, where my wandering footsteps And picturesqu the rustic inn, beneath the old elm s shade; The dancing stream which rippled on, beside the garden wall, The apples glowing neath the sun, the flickering aspens taU. How sweet my evening meal!--fresh trout, caught in clear mountain stream, Some new laid eggs, and saffron cakes, with golden clotted cream; And luscious honey, redolent of fragrant heather flowers, And ripe fruit, culled by childish hands, from mossy woodland bowers; And sparkling cider, banquet e en an epicure might prize, A sight more welcome could not cheer a weary traveller s eyes. Then,...
